

About the Board of Directors

Chairman Kwong Kin Mun

Kin Mun brings with him extensive financial experience, having spent the last 40 years in the financial industry. He is currently Senior Executive Vice President of E.SUN Private Banking.

He has previously held leadership positions including Vice-Chairman for Southeast Asia wealth management at Credit Suisse, Deutsche Bank's Head of Wealth Management for South-east Asia and as Head of South Asia Private Banking at DBS. Other senior banking roles that he held include positions at Citigroup Private Bank, UBS Wealth Management, Standard Chartered Bank and Merrill Lynch.

He is also an exco member of Kwong Wai Shiu Hospital (KWSH), chairman of the investment committee of KWSH and co-chair of the investment committee of KWSH Foundation. In addition, he also serves on the investment committee of the SCO.

Emeritus Chairman Lawrence Khong

Passionate about serving the needy and disadvantaged in Singapore, Emeritus Chairman Lawrence Khong, together with a team of volunteers, founded the work of TOUCH in 1986, which started as a service for children of low-income families in Clementi and Jurong.

This vision has brought TOUCH to where it is today – a multi-service Institution of a Public Character (IPC) which celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2022.

Through the decades, Lawrence has been instrumental in inspiring and mobilising the community to volunteer their service to the needy and disadvantaged.

Lawrence was conferred the Public Service Medal in 1998 in recognition of his contributions to the community.
